Diary of Expenditure

Please read the notes and look at the examples on page 2-7 before you start completing your diary

IN CONFIDENCE

All the particulars you give in this diary will be treated in STRICT CONFIDENCE.
Please do not put your name or address on it.

The interviewer will call again on:

Cards on which interest is charged Q111 in S843A	NO	X
	YES	Y	Explain Page 38 regarding payment of interest	Explain the diary procedure for recording goods obtained using credit cards, chargecards, storecards or shop cards

How to complete your Diary

Write down everything you personally pay for during the fourteen days by cash, cheque, postal order, credit card, shop or store card, Switch or Barclays Connect card, or Luncheon voucher.

- * Make your entries as soon as possible after you get home to make sure you don't forget anything.
- * Show each item, however small, on a separate line.
- * After each item enter the amount you spent on it.
- * If you ask someone else to buy things for you, but you pay for them, include these purchases in your Diary.
- * If you purchase an item with a credit card (eg Access or Visa), a charge card (eg American Express) or a shop or store card (eg John Lewis), enter the item and the amount paid and then ring the number 3 in the box to the left of the amount.
- * Do not ring the number 3 if you purchase an item with a Switch or Barclays Connect card - just enter the item and the amount paid.
- * If you pay anything into a budget account or mail order club, write "payment into budget account (or mail order club)" and then the amount you pay in. Don't record the goods you obtain from these clubs.
- * If you are buying anything on hire purchase or credit sale write down the item and the amount of your payment.
If you start buying anything on h.p. during the fortnight note whether this is a first or down payment.
- * If any item will be claimed as a business expense, or will be refunded, write "to be claimed" or "to be refunded" after the item.

Please remember to start a new page for each day of your Diary

Use the left hand pages of your Diary for

- * Food and drink brought home
- * Regular purchases such as newspapers, cigarettes, stamps, stationery, cleaning materials, cosmetics, toiletries, small electrical items.

Please see the examples on pages 4 and 5.

Use the right hand pages for

- * Take-away meals brought home
- * Meals, snacks and non-alcoholic drinks bought and consumed away from home
- * Alcoholic drinks bought and consumed away from home
- * Clothing and footwear
- * Any other payments including travel and motoring, social activities, entertainment, regular household payments, household purchases, presents, etc.

Please see the examples on pages 6 and 7.

Use page 38 to record

- * Details of expenses refunded or claimed
- * Interest shown on a credit/charge/shop/store card account you pay during the fortnight

Please see the examples on page 39.

Use page 39 to record

- * Any winnings from betting you receive during the fortnight.

On pages 40-42 there is a reminder list of items

Please check the list as it may remind you of things you have forgotten to put in the Diary.

How to describe the food and drinks you bring home

For some food items we need a detailed description. Look at the examples opposite as well as these notes:

Meat

State the type (beef, lamb, pork, bacon, ham, lamb chops, corned beef, etc.) and whether cooked or uncooked. For example: Lamb (uncooked).

Sausages

No need to give type (port etc.) but state whether cooked or uncooked.

Fish

No need to give type but specify whether fresh, frozen, smoked, canned or bottled.

Potatoes

State whether fresh or other potato product (e.g. frozen chips, instant potato powder). Give the brand name of crisps, e.g. KP Crisps.

Other Vegetables and Tomatoes

No need to give type but specify if fresh, frozen, canned, bottled or dried. Tomatoes should be included as vegetables.

Fruit

No need to give type but state if fresh, canned, bottled, dried or frozen. Record fruit juices separately.

Ready meals

Specify type of meal, e.g. frozen vegetable lasagne, cheese and onion pie.

Milk bill

If during the fortnight you pay a milk bill which covers milk only state "milk bill (milk only)", if the bill covers other items, e.g. eggs, cream, give the price of each item.

Drinks

Specify type of drink (tea, coffee, beer, wine, spirits, sherry, cider, soft drinks, mineral water, etc.).

Regular purchases, eg newspapers, cigarettes, stamps, stationery, cleaning materials, cosmetics, toiletries, batteries, light bulbs

Include here daily purchases such as newspapers, cigarettes and stamps. If you buy a postal order record the value and poundage on separate lines.

Also include items you buy regularly for the household such as soap and detergents; deodorants, make-up and other cosmetics; tissues; toiletries; polishes and cleaning materials; matches; kitchen rolls; stationery; and small electrical items such as light bulbs, fuses and batteries.

Take-away meals brought home

If you bring home a take-away meal such as fish and chips or a Chinese meal, tick the box to show whether the meal was bought hot or cold.

Where to enter food and drinks bought and consumed away from home

1. In section 1 include all meals, snacks and non-alcoholic drinks bought at a workplace, canteen or staff dining room.
2. In section 2 include all meals, snacks and non-alcoholic drinks bought at a restaurant, hotel, café, fish and chip shop, school shop, sandwich bar, public house, etc. Ring code 1 if you consume the food on the premises and code 2 if you eat it off the premises. If you buy a snack, state what it comprises, e.g. toasted cheese sandwich (hot). There is no need to state what a "meal out" includes, but if you have alcohol with the meal enter this in section 3.
3. In section 3 include all alcoholic drinks bought and consumed away from home. Ring code 1 if the drinks are bought at an off-licenced premises, including a supermarket, and code 2 if bought at a pub, wine bar, etc.

Clothing, clothing materials and footwear

Record the sex of the person for whom the item is bought and, if under 16, the age of the person (eg Shoes for son, aged 10). Please also record the name of the shop where you bought the item. Include also purchase of haberdashery items such as belts, buttons, handkerchiefs, needles, pins, and zips; there is no need to state for whom these were bought.

Any other payments made today may include:

- * Travel and motoring costs
Include bus, rail, air and taxi fares; petrol and oil; parking fees and fines, purchase of motor vehicles and bicycles; spare parts, tools for maintenance, servicing and repairs.
- * Regular household payments
Include payments for rent, mortgage, water rates, community charge/council tax, electricity and gas (including slot meters), telephone (including coin boxes), h.p. instalments, TV and video rental, video cassettes. Also payments for window cleaner, gardener, home help, child minder, hairdresser, laundry, dry cleaning, prescriptions, medicines, subscriptions to National Trust and other organisations.
- * Insurance premiums
Specify type, eg life, household, contents, car.
- * Entertainment and Social activities
Include admission to Bingo, cinema, theatre, clubs and discos, football and other sports, theme parks, museums, exhibitions and stately homes; guide books and programmes; betting stakes.
- * Lessons and classes
Include fees for driving lessons and leisure classes or activities such as aerobics, keep fit, DIY, cookery, music and sports lessons. If this is your first payment for the class, write "first payment" after the item.
- * Presents of money or pocket money
Please state who received the money.
- * Household purchases
Include purchases of bedding, furniture, carpets, kitchen appliances, gas or electric fires, lamps, clocks, garden equipment, bags, umbrellas, etc.
- * Holiday expenses and business trips
If on holiday in the UK give each day's expenditure as fully as possible. If you are going abroad, state the total amount of money you are taking, including travellers' cheques and foreign currency, the date you are leaving the UK and the date you will be returning.
