- Some benefits are means-tested, where the claimant's (and partner's) earnings, savings and other income (including some benefits), are taken into account when a claim is made. These are marked with 'm'. Here, it is the benefit unit that receives the money, so 2 adults in the same BU should not both be in receipt of the same means-tested benefit.

- Where a benefit can be paid by order book, the order book number(s) are shown. Some benefits are paid on more than one book number, depending on whether it is paid in its own right or in combination with other benefits.

- Weekly rates are shown for certain benefits (mainly those not means tested). Rates are not usually shown if they vary according to age, number of dependants etc, or have a basic rate plus various premiums or allowances.

Attendance Allowance

book 10, 13 or 14

is paid to disabled persons aged 65 or over living at home who need looking after because of their disability. There are two rates; a lower rate for attendance during day OR night (£35.80); and a higher rate for day AND night (£53.55). Note that respondents can get AA even if no one is actually giving them the care they need.

Back To Work Bonus

People who have received Income Support or Jobseeker's Allowance for 13 or more weeks and who work less than 16 hours a week can accrue a bonus to be paid when they come off the benefit and go into full time work. The amount accrued depends on how much is earned over the disregard level.

Child Benefit

book 5

is paid for each child under 16 yrs of age, or aged 16-18 and still in full-time further (but not higher) education. Usually received by the mother. Three rates apply: £15.00 for the only/ elder/eldest child of a couple, £17.10 for the only/elder/eldest child of a lone parent (not applicable to claims beginning after July 1998), £10.00 for each subsequent child.

Christmas Bonus

Recipients of a number of benefits automatically receive this. It should not be recorded anywhere on FRS.

Community Care Grant from the Social Fund

m

is mainly for priority groups who get Income Support eg. elderly or disabled people, families under stress, people leaving institutional care.

Council Tax Benefit (CTB)

m

is paid by the local authority to the people who are liable for the tax - usually the householder(s). It is either a main benefit if householders have a low income, or a second adult rebate if there are other adults in the household who are not liable, do not pay rent to the householder, and have a low income. CTB should not be confused with CT exemptions (eg. for student households), or discounts (eg. for one-adult households). People on Income Support or income-based Jobseeker's Allowance will usually get the benefit. For properties in Bands F-H the maximum benefit is limited to that for Band E, if the claim began after April 1998. For tenants in multi-occupied accommodation (eg. bedsits) the landlord is usually liable for the tax, and adds an amount to the rent; here, the tenant will not be able to get CTB.

Disability Living Allowance

book 7, 10, 13 or 14

is paid to persons under 66 who need help with personal care and/or with getting around. DLA can be paid even if no-one is giving the care needed. There are two components:

(i) Care Component which covers things like washing, dressing, using the toilet, cooking a main meal. Paid at one of 3 rates: Higher (£53.55), Middle (£35.80), or Lower (£14.20).

(ii) Mobility Component for persons who can't walk or have difficulty in walking. Paid at Higher (£37.40) or Lower (£14.20) rates.

Disability Working Allowance (DWA)

book 14 m

was replaced by Disabled Person's Tax Credit from April 2000.

Disabled Person's Tax Credit

IR book

bb

replaced DWA from 5 October 1999, although DWA was not completely phased out until April 2000. Disabled persons who are employees will now have the credit paid directly by their employer rather than administered to them by the Inland Revenue (IR) as a benefit. Self-employed individuals or those not working will continue to receive the credit as a benefit from the IR by cheque or credit transfer. The various modules of the tax credit are Single Persons Tax Credit (£55.15), Lone Parent/Couple (£84.90), 30 hours credit (£11.25), Child credit – birth to Sept following 16th birthday (£21.25), Child credit – from Sept following 16th birthday until day before 19th birthday (£26.35), Disabled Child's Allowance (£22.25). If the tax credit is of a nominal amount, the recipient will be given the opportunity to receive the credit in a lump sum rather than as a periodic payment.

Educational Maintenance Allowance (EMA)

An allowance paid to encourage 16 and 17 year olds in low income families to stay on at school. Based on a means test, there are 4 variants payable to the young person. Payment of EMA will be made in term time only, an average of 38 weeks per year.

Extended Payment of Housing Benefit or Council Tax Benefit

These benefits may be received for a further 4 weeks by people aged under 60 when they start working full-time following a period of at least 6 months being unemployed, on a Govt Training Scheme, or on Income Support as a lone parent or carer.

Family Allowance is the old name for Child Benefit.

Family Credit

book 8 m

was replaced by Working Families Tax Credit from April 2000.

Funeral Expenses

m

A grant from the Social Fund can be obtained if the respondent or partner gets Income Support, income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, Working Families Tax Credit, Housing Benefit, Disabled Person's Tax Credit, Housing Benefit or Council Tax Benefit.

Guardian's Allowance

book 5

is claimed for a child who is in effect an orphan and who lives with the claimant, or whom they help to maintain, whether or not they are the legal guardian. Rate for only, elder/ eldest child is £9.85 ; for subsequent children £11.05.

Housing Benefit

is the general term for benefits to help with rent. It is paid by the local authority. Council tenants on HB get a rent rebate which means that their rent due is reduced by the amount of rebate. Note that they are responsible for their own water charges so those on 100% rent rebate do pay a weekly or fortnightly amount to the Council to cover these and other charges, where other charges are involved. Private tenants and Housing Association tenants usually receive Housing Benefit (or rent allowance) personally, although sometimes it is paid direct to the landlord. People on Income Support or income-based Jobseeker's Allowance usually get maximum Housing Benefit.

Incapacity Benefit

book 14

is paid to people who have been medically assessed as incapable of working, if they have paid enough National Insurance contributions. People ineligible for Statutory Sick Pay (SSP) may receive it. If a person is/was receiving SSP, Incapacity Benefit replaces it after 28 weeks. There are three basic rates depending on the period, age of the individual(s) and severity of incapacity and a number of supplements may be received. Medical assessments to review eligibility may be carried out periodically.

Income Support (IS)

book 11, 10, 14 m

is the main benefit for adults with a low income who are not eligible for Jobseeker's Allowance and are not working 16 hours a week or more on average. It is made up of personal allowances for each member of the benefit unit, premiums for any special needs, and housing costs, principally for mortgage interest payments. Those on IS are likely to be getting Housing Benefit (if in rented accommodation) and Council Tax Benefit (if liable). Often paid to top up other benefits, or earnings from p/t work.

Industrial Injuries Disablement Benefit

book 12

is provided for employees injured at work or suffering from an industrial disease. The amount depends on degree of disablement. Some recipients may also be entitled to Unemployment Supplement. Those whose disablement is assessed as 95% also get Constant Attendance Allowance at one of four rates, and may also be eligible for Exceptionally Severe Disablement Allowance. Also see Reduced Earnings Allowance.

Industrial Death Benefit Widows Pension

Widows of those employees killed at work or by an industrial disease may be entitled to this pension.

Invalid Care Allowance (ICA)

book 13

is a weekly benefit for people aged 16-65 who are not earning more than £50 a week, and who give regular and substantial care (for 35+ hrs per week) to a severely disabled person who themselves gets either DLA or Attendance Allowance. Paid in two rates, the Allowance itself is £40.40 and the Adult Dependent ICA is £24.15.

Invalidity Benefit

was replaced in April 1995 by Incapacity Benefit.

Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA)

replaced Unemployment Benefit and Income Support for unemployed people in October 1996. The claimant must be out of work or working less than 16 hours a week, actively seeking work and have an agreement with the Employment Service. There are two types: contribution-based, dependent on the amount of NI contributions paid, and income-based, dependent on income and savings. There are fixed age-related allowances, plus for income-based JSA only, extra allowances and premiums.

Lone Parent's Benefit Run-On

The Lone Parent's Benefit Run-On will give lone parents who leave IS or JSA (IB) to go into work an extra 2 weeks IS provided the lone parent has been on IS or JSA (IB) continuously for at least 26 weeks, they have been a lone parent throughout that period, and the work is for at least 16 hours a week and expected to last for at least 5 weeks.

Maternity Allowance

is for women who have paid enough Class 1 or 2 NI contributions but are not entitled to Statutory Maternity Pay because, for example, they are self-employed or recently changed jobs. Payment can be made for a period of 18 weeks beginning 11 weeks before the baby is due (later if still working). Lower rate £52.25; Higher rate £60.20.

Maternity Expenses

A grant from the Social Fund for maternity expenses is available if the respondent or partner is getting either Income Support, Disabled Person's Tax Credit or Working Families Tax Credit. One-off payment of £100.

New Deal Allowance

People on New Deal schemes may be offered work in the Voluntary Sector or with the Environmental Task Force. They are usually paid an allowance equal to their Jobseeker's Allowance.

New Deal 50Plus Programme is for individuals aged 50 or over who are in receipt of certain benefits. It is designed to assist them in finding employment and pays an Employment Credit of £60 per week to those taking up full-time work (£40 for part-time) during their first year back at work. For those individuals entering full-time employment, the New Deal 50Plus guarantees a minimum income of £170 per week or £9,000 per year.

Old Person's Pension

also called the Over 80 Pension, is payable when a person reaches 80 and does not get a NI Retirement Pension or whose NI pension is less than the Over 80 Pension.

One Parent Benefit

In April 1997, this was replaced by a new lone parent rate of Child Benefit, which is only applicable if the claim began before July 1998.

Reduced Earnings Allowance

is paid to people who cannot return to their regular occupation or do work of the same standard due to disablement caused before October 1990 by industrial accident or disease. It should be included in the 'other state benefits' category.

Retirement Pension (National Insurance)

is paid to women aged 60 or over and to men aged 65 or over. This is the normal State pension and is the same for men and women who have paid their own NI contributions at the standard rate, and for widows on their husband's NI contributions. The pension may be deferred, for at most 5 years; if so, extra increments will be paid. Persons on this pension may also get Income Support and so you should always check the pension book for details. If there is no pension book because payments are made directly into the bank, ask to see the pension notification form. The majority of pensioners you interview will be getting this pension.

Severe Disablement Allowance is paid from the 29th week of illness to persons of working age who do not qualify for Incapacity Benefit. Persons getting this can also claim Income Support. Be careful not to confuse this benefit with Incapacity Benefit.

Sickness Benefit

was replaced in April 1995 by Incapacity Benefit.

Social Fund Loans

Repayable interest free loans are available: Budgeting Loans to those on Income Support to help spread budgeting costs for certain items and Crisis Loans to people who cannot meet short term expenses in an emergency.

Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)

is received by employees during maternity leave. It is paid by the employer. The respondent must have been in the same job for at least 26 weeks and earning enough to have to pay NI contributions. SMP can be paid for up to 18 weeks. The employer may also add 'made-up' pay. It should only be recorded in the last/usual pay.

Statutory Sick Pay (SSP)

is paid by employers to employees who earn enough to have to pay NI contributions. It is paid after 4 consecutive sick days for a maximum of 28 weeks in any spell or linked spells of sickness. (After 28 weeks, or if the employer's obligation to pay SSP ends before then, the respondent will usually transfer on to Incapacity Benefit). The employer may also add 'made-up' pay. It should only be recorded in the last/usual pay.

Unemployment Benefit

was replaced by Jobseeker's Allowance in October 1996.

War Pension

for claimants who were injured or disabled in the Armed Forces between 1914 and 1921 or any time after 2 Sep 1939.

War Widow's Pension

is payable to widow/ers and children of someone killed in the Armed Forces or who died as a result of injury sustained in the Armed Forces.

Widows' Benefits

are: Widowed Mother's Allowance, a weekly basic benefit (called Widow's Allowance) plus an allowance for each dependent child for whom the mother gets Child Benefit. The child(ren) must be the child(ren) of the widow and her late husband.

Widow's Pension, a weekly benefit for women aged 45-65 (or 40-65 if widowed before 11 April 1988), paid when their husband dies or when their Widowed Mother's Allowance ends.

Widow's Payment, a lump sum (£1000) paid at the time of death to widows aged under 60 yrs (or over 60 if the husband was not getting retirement pension), provided that the husband had paid enough NI contributions.

Working Families Tax Credit (WFTC)

IRbook AA

replaced Family Credit from 5 October 1999, although FC was not completely phased out until April 2000. From 1 April 2000 employees nominated to receive the tax credit will have it paid directly by their employer through their pay packet, rather than as a benefit payment. Self-employed people will still have the tax credit administered by the IR and paid to them as a benefit, as will nominated non-working partners of employees. The only cases where WFTC will not be administered by an employer, is where the employer does not operate PAYE or where there are less than 3 pay periods within the dates the employer is responsible for paying the tax credit. The various modules of the tax credit are Basic Tax Credit (£53.15), 30 hours credit (£11.25), Child credit – birth to Sept following 16th birthday (£21.25), Child credit – from Sept following 16th birthday until day before 19th birthday (£26.35). If the tax credit is of a nominal amount, the recipient will be given the opportunity to receive the credit in a lump sum rather than as a periodic payment.

Other Benefits may include:

Cold Weather Payments, to certain groups on Income Support. Earnings Top-up, to people on low income working 16+ hours per week. Reduced Earnings allowance - see above.

Family Resources Survey

Note: this Guide is for interviewer use only. It is not intended to be an authoritative statement on benefits; it is designed to give FRS interviewers a basic picture of benefits for which details are required from respondents to the survey.

The FRS asks adults about all liquid assets - that is, money held in accounts and investments - because these financial holdings can affect people's eligibility for means-tested Benefits.

There is a huge variety of financial products available. For convenience, the FRS distinguishes 3 main types:

- Accounts - cash holdings for day to day use and for longer term saving
- Investments in the financial markets, eg. ISAs, PEPs, Unit Trusts, stocks and shares
- National Savings investments, issued by the Department of National Savings to finance Government borrowing

After Tax or Before Tax?

Accounts and investments typically pay interest after tax ('net of tax'). In such circumstances, the bank, building society, supermarket/store, investment fund, etc. will deduct the tax due and pays it directly to the Inland Revenue. Sometimes the interest after tax may not be separately identified on a statement/passbook. Although the gross interest and the tax deducted will be shown, the net interest will not. There is a question on the FRS which covers the different possibilities and asks whether the interest recorded is after tax, before tax but tax has been / will be paid, or before tax because the person is a non-taxpayer.

Most National Savings products pay interest before tax ('gross'), ie. without deduction of tax.

A few products are tax-free, not subject to tax at all: eg. the PEP, TESSA, ISA, SAYE, and National Savings Certificates.

Non-taxpayers, - eg. children, students, non-working spouses, some retired people - can fill in a special form to register their accounts with the Inland Revenue, and thereby receive the interest gross of tax. On other investments, or on accounts not registered, non-taxpayers may be able to claim back the tax deducted, from the Inland Revenue.

A Note on 'Bonds'

There are at least 3 financial products called 'bonds'.

Best-known are National Savings products, such as Income Bonds, Pensioners Guaranteed Income Bonds, Childrens Bonus Bonds. On FRS these are recorded separately from other investments.

Friendly Societies, insurance companies, and more recently banks and building societies issue 'bonds', whereby large sums are deposited, long-term, to earn high rates of interest. On FRS these are not counted as investments - they cannot be bought and sold on the financial markets - and so are included with bank/building society, etc. savings accounts.

Less common than either of these however are the bonds issued by private companies ('corporate bonds'), foreign governments, local authorities and others in order to raise money. Because investors can usually trade these securities on the financial markets, they are counted as investments on FRS, along with other holdings of stocks, shares, etc.

■ Accounts, on CARD GG

Current Account with Bank, Building Society, Supermarket/Store or other organisation is used for day to day transactions and will have a cheque book and generally offers the facility to withdraw cash by means of a card. Any interest on such accounts will normally be minimal. The majority of respondents will have a current account.

National Savings Bank/Post Office Ordinary Account

Interest is credited to the account on 31 December each year. Interest is paid before tax, and is taxable except for the first £70 earned each year (£140 if joint holding).

National Savings Bank/ PO Investment Account

Similar to the Ordinary account, but interest rate is higher, and 1 month's notice is required for withdrawals. Interest is credited to the account annually, on 31 Dec, gross of tax.

Tax Exempt Special Savings Account (TESSA)

Usually arranged via a bank or building society, these accounts last for five years and, provided the savings are left there for that time, any interest earned will be tax free. From 5 April 1999 no new TESSAs can be taken out, but those opened before that time are able to run their course. Up to £9,000 may be deposited gradually over the 5 years. Interest is usually credited to the account once a year. Up to March 1999, at the end of the 5 years, a follow-on TESSA could be opened, and up to the full £9,000 deposited at once. From 5 April 1999 the capital from a maturing TESSA may be transferred into a TESSA-ISA – these must be counted as an ISA (see below), not a TESSA.

Individual Savings Account (ISA)

Introduced on 6 April 1999, ISAs are tax-shelters from which the income is tax-free. There are 3 components – cash (including National Savings), securities (stocks, shares, units trusts etc) and life insurance – which may be held singly (known as 'mini ISAs') or collectively (known as 'maxi ISAs'). Each year savers can either subscribe to one 'maxi' ISA, which must offer a stocks and shares component and can have either or both of the other two components, or up to three 'mini ISAs', one for each component. Savers can subscribe up to £5,000 (£7000 in 1999/2000) in each tax year of which no more than £1,000 (£3,000 in 1999/2000) may go into cash and £1,000 into life insurance. Husbands and wives will have their own individual subscription limits. One TESSA-ISA may be opened with the capital from a maturing TESSA (see above) on an annual basis and does not affect entitlements to other ISAs. TESSA-ISAs should be counted as ISAs, not TESSAs. The securities component similarly should be counted as an ISA, not recorded at the question on stock market investments.

Savings account/bond, investment account/bond with Building Society, High Street Bank, Supermarket/Store or 'other organisation Savings (or 'deposit') accounts/bonds and investment account/bonds are not normally used for day to day transactions, and typical features are a minimum deposit and a period of notice for withdrawals. Interest can be paid yearly, half-yearly, quarterly, or monthly.

Government Gilt-Edged Stock (incl War Loan)

'Gilts' raise money for the UK Government by offering a secure ('gilt-edged') investment, usually over a fixed period and with a fixed rate of interest, although some are index-linked. Gilts can be bought and sold. At the end of the fixed term the holder is repaid the original purchase price. Interest is paid half-yearly, before tax if bought from the National Savings Stock Register. The value of the gilt is its current market price.

For FRS it is important to get the name of the gilt (eg. 'Treasury 7.25%') and the year in which it will be repaid, called the redemption date (only a few stocks are undated). The certificates will give this information. Note that gilts held in a PEP should be coded as a PEP.

Unit Trusts

are a collective, managed investment in the financial markets. Investors buy 'units' of a fund that invests in shares, stocks, gilts, etc. Interest (the 'dividend') is paid net of tax, usually half yearly, but some schemes pay a monthly income, or reinvest the interest. There are many types of scheme. The value of the units is the amount of money they would raise if they were sold (the 'bid' price). In the Assets block, enter the full name of the company and the investment. Note: a Unit Trust holding via a PEP should be coded as a PEP.

Investment Trusts

are pooled schemes similar to Unit Trusts. The difference is that the Trust is a company, and investors hold shares in that company, rather than directly in its various investments. For FRS purposes, the value of a shareholding is its current market price. Note: if held in a PEP, then code under PEP.

Stocks, Shares, Bonds, Debentures, other securities are types of investment usually bought and sold on the financial markets. A share is a single unit of ownership in a company. (The units are of equal value, hence 'equities'.)

'Stocks' is the general term for various types of security issued by companies to attract investment in the form of loans. Bonds and debentures are two such types of stock; others include unsecured loan stock and convertible loan stock. (Bonds issued by foreign governments and local authorities should also be recorded here.)

Unlike shares, whose dividend earnings may fluctuate, stocks give a fixed-interest return. They are issued for a set period, during which time they can be traded by investors; at the end of the period they are redeemed at the original price.

Dividends on shares and interest on bonds and other loans is typically paid half-yearly, net of tax. The value of these holdings is their current price on the financial markets. Note: if held in a PEP, then code under PEP.

[Note: A few investors may hold stocks and shares that cannot be publicly traded, eg. in 'private' companies not listed on the Stock Exchange. If so, in the Assets block enter the price of the investment, and the date of purchase.]

A PEP (personal equity plan), designed to encourage people to invest in UK and EC companies, a PEP is a tax-sheltered, managed investment in the financial markets of a lump sum or regular savings. From 5 April 1999, no new PEPs may be taken out, but those open before then may continue to be kept and continue under their current rules but with no further subscriptions. Many types of PEP were available; some hold shares in a single company, but usually the investment is spread over many companies and different markets. PEPs can include holdings in Unit Trusts, Investment Trusts, bonds, and gilts. Any dividend earnings and growth in value are free of tax.

■ National Savings investments, on CARD II

National Savings Capital Bonds

Minimum purchase £100, maximum holding £250,000. Interest is fixed for 5 years, and is credited annually, gross (before tax), but is taxable.

National Savings Certificates

Two types of investment for lump sum savings of £100 or more: Fixed Interest, and Index-linked certificates (where the value is linked to changes in the Retail Prices Index). Maximum earnings are obtained after five years. Interest on both investments is tax-free.

Pensioner's Guaranteed Income Bond

is available only to people over 60 yrs. It gives a fixed interest rate over 5 years, with income paid monthly, before (gross of) tax, but is taxable. Minimum investment £500.

Save-As-You-Earn (National Savings/Bank/Building Society)

A 5- or 7-year regular monthly savings scheme. For employees, it can also be linked to a company share option scheme; at the end of the term, the employee can either use the savings to buy the shares in their company, or take the accumulated investment. The interest rate is fixed over the term, and the interest is tax-free. SAYE ended in Nov 1994, but previous schemes remain valid.

Premium Bonds

don't earn interest, but are entered in a monthly draw for tax-free money prizes.

National Savings Income Bonds

Minimum purchase £2,000, maximum £250,000, sole or joint. Interest is paid monthly, before tax (but taxable), into a bank/building society or similar account. On the FRS, please be sure to differentiate clearly between National Savings Income Bonds and National Savings Deposit Bonds.

National Savings Deposit Bonds

Deposit bonds are no longer available, but earlier bonds are still valid.

'FIRST' Option bonds

an accumulating lump sum investment of between £1000 and £250,000. Interest is paid net of tax, and credited annually. The rate is reviewed each year, and holders have the option to withdraw or continue.

Yearly Plan

Yearly plan certificates can still be held, though new applications stopped in January 1995. Under the scheme monthly standing order payments of £20 were made (to a max. of £400); after 12 months a Yearly Plan certificate was issued. The certificates earn tax free interest, paid monthly, and reach maturity value after 4 years. After the 4th year interest is paid 3-monthly at a lower rate.

Children are not asked about individual accounts held or the income from them, just whether they have any savings and the total amount held (banded). This would include any of the types mentioned above, plus Children's Bonus Bonds.

Children's Bonus Bonds

can be bought for any child under 16. A 5-year accumulating investment of between £25 and £1000: low interest for 4 years, but with a large 'bonus' in the final year. The interest is tax free.
