

Dear user,

Thank you for downloading the data for SN 5694 - Electronic Edition of Domesday Book: Translation, Databases and Scholarly Commentary, 1086

Your download is made up of three different types of data files: data, documentation and additional files.

Data files

The data files for this resource are of two different sorts.

If you have downloaded the Access version of the data you will have:

Six MSAccess2003 files in the folded 'access' and 112 files containing text (rich text format - *.rtf) kept in four different folders according to their content. These folders are: 'appendix', 'introduction', 'notes' and 'statistic_notes'.

If you have downloaded the TAB version of the data you will have:

30 tab delimited (tab) files containing the same statistical information contained in the MSAccess data above, but kept in a format that can be used with other statistical packages and computational platforms, and the same 112 rich text files mentioned above.

Documentation files

The master documentation file is called 'guide' and can be found in the mrdoc folder in both *.rtf (rich text format) or *.pdf version. In this document you will find the necessary information to understand and interpret the contents of this data collection.
