We can't do without you, Mr Peter Matthews.

Can you spare some valuable time to help our world-leading study? We can't replace you, so your ongoing support is really valuable to us. By continuing to take part, you're helping researchers to build a more detailed picture of life in Britain today. Understanding Society means to give people like you a voice on issues that matter to them by making sure that different people and their lives are truly represented.

As mentioned in my recent letter, you can complete this year's survey online. Just click here.

To say thank you for your help, we have sent you a £10 voucher.

Your participation is entirely voluntary, but we do hope you'll be able to keep helping us each year. If you have any questions, please email Colette. You can also find out more about the survey here.

Many thanks,

Professor Michaela Benzeval
Director, Understanding Society

We can't do without you, Mr Peter Matthews.

Over the past few years you may have completed a short Understanding Society questionnaire for 10-15 year olds. As you turn 16 this year, you are now old enough to join the adult survey for the first time. By taking part, you will help researchers to shine a light on the important changes and decisions you'll be making over the coming years. It's really important that young people's lives, opinions and needs are understood.

As mentioned in my recent letter, you can complete the survey online. Just click here.

To say thank you for your help, we will send you a £10 voucher. Plus, to welcome you to the adult survey, you will automatically be entered into a prize draw for an iPad when you complete your interview.

Your participation is entirely voluntary, but we do hope you'll be able to keep helping us each year. If you have any questions, please email Colette. You can also find out more about the survey here.

Dear Mr Peter Matthews.

You recently started your Understanding Society survey, but did not complete it. Unfortunately the survey can't be the world-class study we want it to be without all your answers to all of the questions, so we do hope you will be able to finish it.

I hope that you are able to answer the remaining questions. I am very grateful for all your help on this important study.

If you have any questions at all about Understanding Society, please email us at contact@understandingsociety.ac.uk or via the participants' website where you can also read some early findings, post comments, or just find out more information about Understanding Society: www.understandingsociety.ac.uk/participants.

Many thanks,

Mr Peter Matthews, your help is still needed.

You may remember I emailed you recently asking for your help in this year's Understanding Society survey. There's still time to take part, and by doing so you can help influence decisions at a local and national level on issues that really matter to you. We hope you can take part this year. If you have already completed the survey then please ignore this message.

You may remember we contacted you earlier this year asking for your help in this year's Understanding Society survey. Our interviewer has not been able to carry out an interview with you during their visits. We hope you do not mind us trying once more.

An interviewer may also try to contact you by telephone over the next two weeks, in case you cannot complete the survey online.

We are persevering in this way because your views and experiences are very important. By taking part, you will help us ensure that the study represents all types of people across the UK, and can paint an accurate picture of what our society looks like today and how it is gradually changing.
