

There were several different version of the questionnaire, and to amalgamate the data we had to remove all non-standard questions.

The non-standard questions are defined as follows.

Voting

These two questions were asked on the pre-election questionnaires (Spring Harvest and ECG)

- Are you likely to vote in this year's General Election?
- Which party are you planning to vote for?

These two questions were asked on the post-election questionnaires

- Did you vote in this year's General Election?
- Which party did you vote for?

The Northern Ireland questionnaires (member churches and New Horizon) had a different list of political parties.

Media consumption

The media consumption list was different for the Northern Ireland questionnaires.

Bespoke questions

These festivals had some bespoke questions on the final page of the questionnaire:

- ECG
- CLAN

EA questions

The ECG and CLAN questionnaires omitted these questions:

- Which three of the following activities should the Evangelical Alliance focus on?
- Battery of statements about Evangelical Alliance
