

21st Century Evangelicals survey – May 2014

Welcome

Thank you for taking part in the 21st Century Evangelicals online research.

These surveys are designed by the Evangelical Alliance working with a group of other Christian organisations - our research partners.

This quarter's survey is intended to tap into some issues that are of particular relevance to the Alliance and our partner organisations. Although we do not intend to publish a report in the usual format from this survey, your findings will help the Alliance, our partners and the wider Church to improve the way we serve God's people and engage in God's mission in the world.

Our next quarterly survey will be thematic, like the previous surveys, and lead to a published report.

All answers are anonymous. If you'd really rather not answer a particular question you can always leave it blank. People vary, but we estimate the survey shouldn't take longer than about 15-20 minutes, unless you choose to write a lot in open ended comments boxes.

In my locality there is a strong ecumenical network or organisation of churches from many different Christian traditions	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
In my locality, there are strong relationships between churches where the majority of the congregation are from ethnic minority backgrounds and the rest	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I personally have strong relationships with local Christians who come from churches or traditions other than my own.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
My own church is eager to be involved in local unity movements with other Christians	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
We should only work with other Christians when we can agree with them on the key points of our beliefs	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Christians from all traditions should do their best to show our unity to the world by speaking well of each other and working together for the community, even when we can't agree on every doctrine or practice	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Christians need to work harder to build unity across the ethnic and cultural divisions in Church and society	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

You have finished.

Thank you for completing this survey.

For more details about the project and to read our previous reports, please visit www.eauk.org/snapshot. Here you can also find links to the websites of our research partner organisations.

Please tell your Christian friends and people at your church about our surveys and encourage them to go to the website and take part.

We are not anticipating publishing results of this survey in the familiar report booklet format. However we are happy to make the key findings available in raw data form on request from July onwards. Please email g.smith@eauk.org if you are interested.

Our next quarterly survey will be thematic, like our previous surveys, and lead to a published report.
